$50 FROM EACH SALE GOES TO SUSAN G. KOMEN FOR THE CURE

FINDING A CURE

Thirty-five years ago, only 75 percent of women survived for five years after a diagnosis, says the National Cancer Institute. Today that number has jumped to 90 percent, thanks in part to organizations like the Breast Cancer Research Foundation, Susan G. Komen for the Cure, the City of Hope Foundation, the Vera Bradley Foundation for Breast Cancer, the National Breast Cancer Foundation, and the World Cancer Research Fund International (all of which are helped by the sale of products featured here).
